LANCER

A photograph of a campus scene. In the foreground, a paved walkway curves through a grassy area. A person is walking on the path to the left. A signpost with a red trash can and a red bench is visible. In the background, there are trees with autumn foliage, a brick building, and a modern building with a stone facade. The sky is bright and slightly cloudy.

DEDICATION

DR. SHERRY MADISON

The 1983-84 LANCER is dedicated to Dr. Sherry Madison for her service and loyalty to Surry Community College.

Sherry, at the present time, serves as counselor in the college parallel program, advisor to the Student Government Association, Student Activities Advisor, and friend to many students here at the college. She is the co-ordinator for all student functions and as such is responsible for planning dances, concerts, and special events.

Sherry earned her doctorate in education at N.C. State University. She is the wife of Charles, an instructor in the Surry Community College Correctional Division, and mother to their thirteen-year old son Wesley.

Sherry has spent many hours working diligently with our staff on the publication of the LANCER. For her encouragement and optimistic spirit, we dedicate this issue of the LANCER to her.

PRESIDENT OF THE COLLEGE

DR. SWANSON RICHARDS

A graduate of Appalachian State University, and Florida State University, Dr. Swanson Richards has been president of Surry Community College for eleven years. He served in numerous positions in the Surry County School System before coming to the college.

Dr. Richards sets a good example for us students through his leadership roles in several organizations within our county and state. His outgoing personality and service to our college distinguish him as an excellent president.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The purpose of Surry Community College is to enable citizens of our area to increase their skills and knowledge. "To each His Farthest Star" is an appropriate motto. Surry Community College will fulfill its purpose by:

- Providing, through open door admissions and within the statutory and fiscal limits, programs and instructions which will give each student the opportunity to start where he is and progress toward his occupational and educational objectives.
- Ensuring that when each student has successfully completed a program, that he will have the skill and knowledge to meet the demands of the job for which he has prepared or to transfer and succeed at another institution.
- Providing social, cultural, and recreational activities to assist students in developing their leadership and social skills, their appreciation of aesthetic values, and a more productive use of their leisure time.
- Developing effective ways of evaluating college programs, to make adjustments as needed, and to make appropriate reports to the public.
- Encouraging and stimulating the innate desire for learning.
- Making Surry Community College a stimulating and rewarding place to work and study.

WE ARE INDIVIDUAL STARS,

ALONE JUST A LIGHT ...

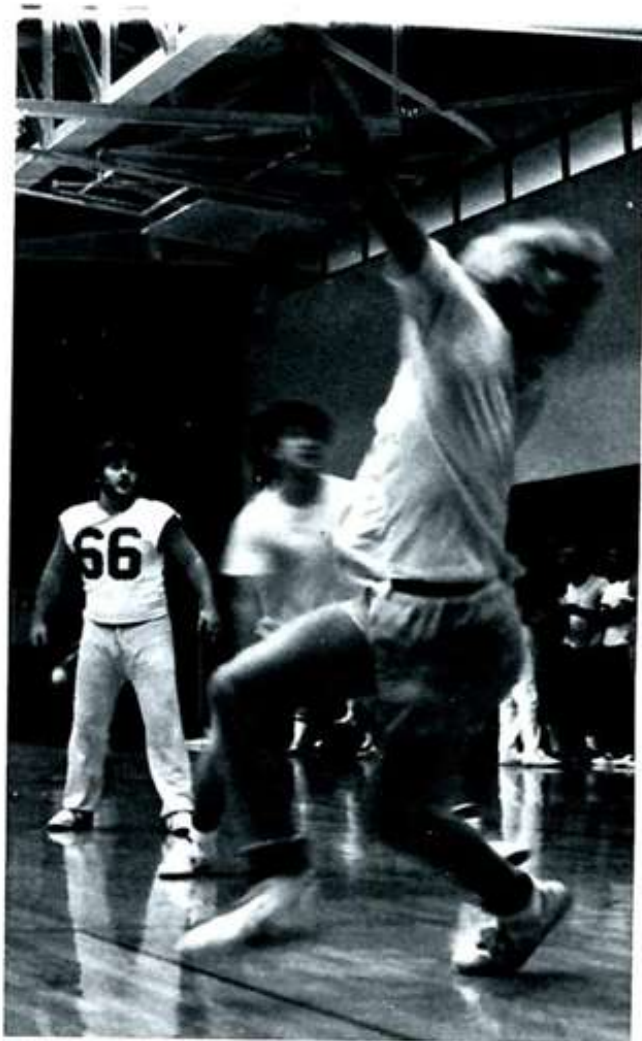

TOGETHER

A SPARKLING SKY.

HISTORY OF UNC-D

The University of North Carolina—Dobson was founded in 1716 by Jed Clampett as he was passing through Surry County on his way to California. The school was started in a one-room shack and was originally called Surry Community College. It offered only three basic classes: readin,'ritin,' and 'rithmetic. The population of Surry County rose astronomically after the technological breakthrough of the invention of the plow. Increased food production resulted in a baby boom, which later inspired the college to begin offering specialty courses in quilting, wood cutting, and fundamental mule grooming. These classes were soon full, and there was a waiting list to get into the college. The trustees of the college recognized a growing need for education in Surry County and from this point on, the college expanded quickly.

Over the years UNC-D has developed into one of the finest institutions for higher learning in the continental United States, comparable only to Harvard and Yale in its high academic standards and educational excellence.

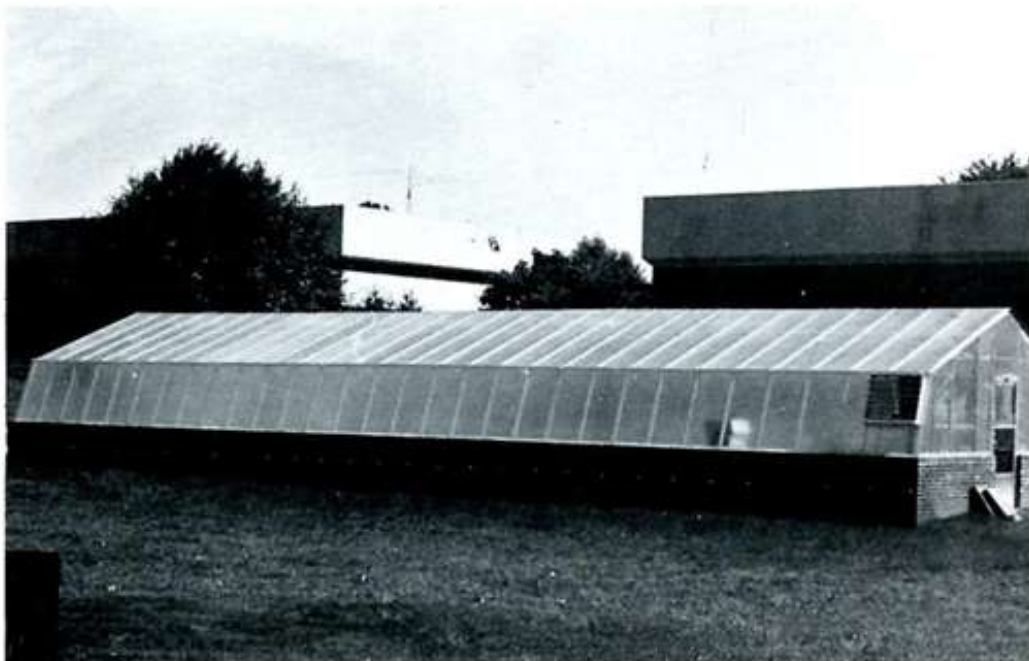

Today UNC-D still centers around the point where that one-room schoolhouse called Surry Community College was once located. Currently, there are seventy-five buildings on the UNC-D campus, with twenty of those buildings housing students from all over the world who have chosen to continue their education here. We students of the LANCER staff are proud of the history of our fair school.

One of the many rustic walkways crisscrossing the scenic UNC-D campus.

Someone finally found a solution to the parking problem.

Mr. Boyles sings to his plants daily.

I'm going to get sick again.

Mr. Hutchens and Dr. Wiles both came home with blue ribbons from the International Tie Contest. Mr. Hutchens sports a tie made from a pair of pajamas while Wild Man Wiles flashes us with a tie consisting of a clever array of atoms.

Ladies' ACC mudwrestling team.

UNC-D, Can I help you?

Maybe we could sell the suckers and give the yearbooks away.

"Revenge is mine," saith Tim.

VISITING ARTIST

Louise Anderson

Louise Anderson, the visiting artist at SCC, is best known for her storytelling with emphasis on African and Afro-American folk stories. She also knows about the history and preparation of ethnic foods and drinks, especially Southern and African dishes. Her thirty years' culinary experience helped her teach food services courses at Coastal Community College, an experience which has proven invaluable in her study of folklore. She is the author of many books of children's stories and is now currently involved in making a motion picture.

These are the days to which our dreams belong,
When flesh and spirit sing a duet song,
When reach is infinite and grasp is strong—
These are the days to which our dreams belong.

And these are the nights to which our joy is born,
When twilight is as confident as morn,
When reason tunes, but heart must blow, the horn
Into the nights to which our dreams are born.

The years may come when all the stars go out,
When flesh and spirit, heart and reason doubt,
Then through these pages we must browse about,
And see the faces we have been without.

Then memory shall camouflage the scars—
Believing is the genesis of stars.
